

About the Poet

Isaac Idehen Ugiagbe is currently a 400L student of Geomatics in the University of Benin. He is the lead graphic artist of Sensei Graphics, a lover of the piano and a Spoken word poet (with the stage name motmot) who aims to change lives by the words the breathes out in poetry. When he is not busy touching lives, he loves playing and watching football.

About the Piece

Lazy Nigerian Youth is a wake-up call to our youths to seize opportunities, even the ones that do not knock on our doors as we only get out of life how much we put into it.
